In October - November 1904 certain ryots of the Bangalore Taluk complained of loss of crops ~~by~~ caused during manoeuvres conducted by the British Military authorities and in June 1905 a reference was made to the Residency for steps being taken to obviate such complaints. In reply the Residency in letter No. 4761 of 25 Aug[t] 1905 suggested that in order to deal quickly with complaints as to loss of crops caused during "ordinary drill manoeuvres" which continue practically ~~throughout~~ throughout the year, and as to which no notice is given or any ground reserved or cleared, the Dunbar should nominate an officer in Bangalore to receive all complaints of damage, who would be able to settle compensation & have it paid without delay in consultation with the Brigade Major of the Bangalore Brigade. The Dy Comm[r]'s opinion on this suggestion was called for and he agreed in the proposal. As regards the Special Officer he was of opinion that neither the

He therefore suggested that an additional* officer of the grade of asst Commr should be attached to the Dt who was not to be encumbered with the Rev- or criminal work of any taluk or the charge of the Dt Dr. He was to attend to all questions connected with the military manoeuvres & ~~be~~ in addition ~~personally~~ be a personal assistant to the Dy Commr in all miscellaneous special duties in the Dt. The Dy Commr was of opinion that the appointment of an officer of this kind was a necessity so far as the Bangalore Dt was concerned.

Dy Comm^r of the Bangalore Dt has also strongly urged the need for such an officer. ~~As~~ ~~Further~~ the Dy Comm^r of the Bangalore Dt has a number of miscellaneous duties to attend to and the need for a personal assistant who will help him in the disposal of current work & also attend to any special work when there is a necessity, is very much felt.

For these reasons the posting of an additional Asst Comm^r to the Bangalore Dt as Personal assistant to the Dy Comm^r & Civil Officer may be sanctioned as a permanent measure, & this Office may be added to the Cadre as fixed in the recent Civil Service order of the 17th June 07. 6) My object in going into this matter in so much detail is to show that there were recently 2 officers in excess of the total no of charges for the entertainment of whom special sanction is necessary. This may be due to the employment 2 asst Commrs on charges which are not reserved for them in the order for Asst Commrs.

8) The general question of adding an appointment to the Cadre of Asst Commrs may now be considered. This office will be a kind of Personal Asst to the Dy Commr of Bangalore. In British India, the Personal Asstts of Commrs of divisions are always selected from the ranks of Dy Collrs. There are no special a Personal Asstts to Collrs. If there were these offices wd have been of no higher status than Tahsildars a Sub Dy Collrs. As their services, of the proposed office wd be required for assessing compensation for loss of crops &c, it wd be better to appoint an office having experience of the valuation of crops, & thereby according to my judgment a Dy Amildar or an Amildar wd suit the purpose better than an Asst Commr of a few years' standing with very little knowledge of such matters.

9) In view of the block of promotion in the ranks of Asst Commrs that may be looked forward to with confidence in a few years' time, it is also not asst Commr to work as personal asst to Dy Comm & Civil Officer for military manœuvres - what is proposed is an addition to the cadre.

The necessity for a special officer for this work has been pointed out in my previous note. With reference to para 8 of the Finlay's note I am unable to agree with him in thinking that an Officer of an amildar's Dy amildar's status would do as Personal asst to the Dy Commr. Whatever may be the practice in other parts of India, in Madras, personal asstts allowed to Collectors in certain districts are chosen from among Dy Collectors. Whatever the disparity between Dy Collectors of the Provincial Service and members of the I.C.S in point of status & pay, still Dy Collectors are of a higher status & get more pay than Tasildars & other officers subordinate to the collector in the Rev Dept. The personal asstts are therefore in a position to deal with routine work of the collector's office

Sign orders for him & help him ~~in~~ substantially in more important office work.

I do not think that a personal asst of the grade of amildar or dy amildar would be of much use to the dy comm^r in dealing with the work of the office & disposing of ordinary matters of no great importance. He would be little better than the ~~1st~~ Sh^r. I think it is very desirable that the personal asst^t should be of the status of asst comm^r.

As regards the work of Civil Offices no doubt executive experience as a revenue officer is necessary & an Ass^t Comm^r promoted from the ranks of amildars would do very well for the place. Such an officer would be more useful than a junior officer recruited directly by competition or special selection

As already stated above the reserve of officers excluding probationers is not enough to ~~meet~~ provide for absentees in the permanent charges & ~~one of the present additional~~ officers in the present case cannot therefore be spared for this work.

In the note on page 1 to 4 of these notes the history of the appointment of a Civil Officer at Bangalore has been given. The Officer was mainly intended to deal with "ordinary drill manoeuvres" for which "no notice is given nor any ground ~~cleared~~ reserved or cleared" and which "continue practically throughout the year"[x] On the strong representation of the Dy Commr[x] Bangalore &c that an asstt Commr was necessary to deal with the work & that the Divisional Officers could not attend to it, the Durbar agreed to depute an asstt Commr for this work in Feb 06. In the Residency letter No 2064 dy 29/3/06[x], the procedure for dealing with complaints about damages during drill manoeuvres was laid down, one of which was that an asstt Commr should be nominated by the Durbar to attend specially to such Complaints On this Govt issued an order G 5086-94—Gm 327-04-14 dy 17/4/06. accepting the proposals.

When the present file was circulated to Council in Sept 07 & Jan 4 08 the collection containing the Resy letter of March 06 & the Govt of 17 April 06 was not put up as it had been put up for reference in some other connection.

From the papers it will be seen that the Durbar have definitely arranged with the Resy to keep a special officer to deal with complaints about damages in connection with ordinary drill manoeuvres which take place without notice all throughout the year. It would be inconvenient & unsatisfactory if the divisional officer Bangalore has to do the work. The reserve of officers now provided in the C-S. It also consists for the most part of probationers under training, who cannot be deputed for work such as that of a Civil officer requiring a certain amount of Extract from the Proceedings of the 216th Meeting of the Council of His Highness the Maharaja, held at Bangalore on the 3rd Nov. 1908.

III. Subject. - (Clauses v and x of Schedule).

Appointment of an additional Assistant Commissioner to do the duties of Civil Officer for work connected with Military Manoeuvres.

O P I N I O N.

In view of the arrangement that was entered into by the Durbar with the Residency in February 1906, it is necessary to depute a special officer for work in connection with Military Manoeuvres.

× Flag G, Letter No 5.248 dated 13/14 Sept: 05 [vide G.M. 327-04-9 (B Mem 05)]

For various reasons it is desirable that the said officer should be of the status of an Assistant Commissioner. An Amildar or Police Inspector cannot command sufficient regard or consideration from Military Officers, especially of high rank; nor can he always secure the necessary degree of prompt assistance and co-operation from the local Taluk officials, with whose arrangements, moreover, his acts and orders may sometimes come in conflict.

3 And then again, if the Special Officer is an Amildar, his services cannot be properly utilized at times when there may be no military operations going on, whereas an Assistant Commissioner could be employed as a Personal Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner in the disposal of routine office work and also of the various miscellaneous and special duties that have to be attended to in a District like Bangalore.

4 The Special Asstt: Commr: could also be posted to relieve other Assistant Commissioners when they go on leave. In this connection it may be mentioned that t h e reserve of 8 officers provided in Para XIV (1) of the Civil Service Rules "on account of casualties, absences on leave, and deputations, and on account of Probationers undergoing training" has been found by experience to be inadequate. As a matter of fact, there are 7 Probationers now, so that the reserve is virtually reduced to a single officer. The result is that on some occasions when officers have applied for leave, we have been obliged to make acting appointments from the subordinate grades.

(vide G. M. 12-06-08
-B. June 08)

5 Lastly, a Special Assistant Commissioner has, as a matter of fact been employed as Civil Officer since the beginning of 1906, and it is necessary to bring him formally within the cadre.

6 For these various reasons, the Council recommend that the reserve of 8 officers referred to may be increased to 9.

With my note dated 21st June 1907 on the subject of the revision of the Civil Service Rules, I submitted a draft of the proposed new rules, in para XIV(1) of which the appointment of "Civil officer attached to the Bangalore District for work connected with the Military Department" was put down as one of the appointments to be included in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners. In passing orders on the above note on 25th June 1907, His Highness was pleased to enquire as follows:-

> "6. Turning to the draft order, I am not sure "who is the officer added in para XIV as 'Civil "officer attached to the Bangalore District for "work connected with the Military department'. "Has the question of this addition been before "me?"

The revised Civil Service Rules were thereupon issued omitting from the cadre of Assistant Commissioners the appointment of Civil officer, pending further consideration and orders.

The office notes pages 1 to 4 and 15 to 17 explain the circumstances under which an Assistant Commissioner has been attached to the Bangalore District since February 1906 for attending to complaints made by ryots about damages caused by the British troops on occasions of ordinary military manoeuvres. The Residency suggested that an Amildar might be deputed for this work, but the late Dewan was of opinion that an Assistant Commissioner should be deputed and informed the Residency accordingly. The matter does not appear to have been placed before His Highness at the time, but in view of the understanding given by the Durbar to the Residency, it is necessary that an Assistant Commissioner should continue to be deputed for this work.

The subject was considered in Council on the 3rd instant, and I submit herewith the opinion of the Council. For reasons given in the Council resolution, it is desirable that the number of appointments in the Civil Service "on account of casualties, absences on leave and deputations, and on account of Probationers undergoing training" may be raised from 8 to 9. This may be sanctioned.
